

Pet Travel Safety Tips

Airline Rules & Regulations

With vacation time around the corner, many of us like to travel with our pets. Most airlines allow pets to travel but each has its own rules and fees and they vary across the airlines. All airlines require documentation that your pet is current on all vaccines (from your veterinarian) and be carried in an airline approved carrier. Here is a handy guide for most of the North American airlines

Air Canada:

- Pets Allowed: Both cats and dogs
- Price: Ranges from $50-100 each way in cabin; $105 one way in checked baggage
- Guidelines: Pet must be in a kennel; in cabin or cargo
- Size: Not exceeding 21.5" L x 15.5" W x 9" H (Hard-sided kennels) or 21.5" L x 15.5" W x 10.5" (soft-sided kennels) and under 22 lbs. (for both pet and carrier). In checked baggage - a carrier must be no more than 115" in linear dimensions (L + W + H).

American Airlines:
